International Day of People with Disability in the library

Tuesday 3 December | 10:00 am - 11:00 am
Hurstville Library | Bookings essential

Join us to celebrate International Day of People with Disability at Hurstville Library and launch our latest accessibility and inclusivity measures we are implementing in our library services.

Learn some Auslan and enjoy a sensory bubble show as we read picture books about diversity and inclusion and the way we all fit in the world differently, but cohesively.
