

Would you like to attend an Intergenerational Program?

Playgroup NSW has opened an Intergenerational Playgroup at an aged care home in South Hurstville!

If you have children 0-5 yrs and are interested in attending this wonderful program then please send an enquiry to npereira@playgroupnsw.org.au

Intergenerational Playgroups provide the opportunity for multi-generational play and fun in aged-care settings. It brings older Australians, families and children together in play-based activities that foster friendship, community cohesion and value the insights and experiences of all who attend.

This playgroup runs fortnightly on Mondays mornings

Please contact npereira@playgroupnsw.org.au for further info
