

UNDERSTANDING THE FAMILY DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCESS

Family Dispute Resolution is a type of mediation that helps you to settle parenting arrangements with the primary goal of setting you up with the foundations for co-parenting well. Our Understanding Family Dispute Resolution workshop will help you to understand what makes up this process and what you might expect as you go on this journey.

Participants of this program will:

- Have greater clarity about the Family Dispute Resolution Process in the context of the current legislative changes.
- Attain the wisdom and knowledge on what to expect during the process of formalising parenting arrangements.
- Feel empowered with insights on this important aspect of the separation journey you are about to impart on.
- Feel supported through information and resources that will guide you to resolve family disputes
- Attain a greater understanding of the support services at your disposal as you go through the separation process.
