

Working in partnership with individuals, families and support networks, our autism-specific therapists develop strategies that help you reach your full potential.

Aspect Therapy

Our Services

Early Childhood Supports

Early Childhood Supports
We use coaching and capacity building to ensure the best start in life for children aged 0 to 9.

Speech Pathology

We work with individuals on language development, communication and social skills.

Psychology

Our psychology services focus on understanding and managing emotions, behaviour and social skills.

Occupational Therapy

Our occupational therapy helps with physical skills and sensory preferences, and improves participation in everyday activities.

Building Tots

This program supports aged 0 to 3 who are developing differently, and NOT currently attending a preschool, long day care, etc. The program's objective is to facilitate the successful transition of the child into an early childhood education and care setting.

Education and skills development

We offer guidance and resources to help with engagement, learning and participation in day-to-day activities, as well as support the transition to different education settings.

How we work

We partner with you. Aspect exists to support people to live their best life possible.

We work to understand people on the autism spectrum from their perspective.

We focus on the strengths and interests of individuals on the autism spectrum.

Our solutions are evidence-informed and proven to work.

Our services are personalised to each person and family, for every stage of life, from early childhood to adulthood.

Locations

Throughout Australia, we provide therapy services in many settings including in clinics, at home visits, via telehealth, community centres and early education centres and schools.

With a specialism in autism, our experienced, caring therapists provide tailored support and services to meet your needs and your families/carers.

Aspect is one of Australia's largest autism-specific service providers. We have over 50 years of experience partnering with people of all ages on the autism spectrum, as well as their families, carers and support networks.

We are committed to making life better for people on the spectrum.
