

Women's Health and Menopause

A free learning session for health educators and bicultural workers

Jean Hailes for Women's Health – a non-for-profit organisation – is running a free learning session on women's health and how to support women in diverse communities with reliable, relevant and culturally appropriate information and resources.

When

Thursday 30 April 2026,
2 – 4.30 pm

Where

Arncliffe Youth Centre,
9 Townsend Lane, Arncliffe NSW

Who it's for

The session is designed for health educators, bicultural workers, health promotion officers and anyone delivering health education to women from diverse communities.

Afternoon tea is provided. Spots are limited. Register now.

How to register

For more information and to register, scan the QR code or visit our event page

