

Strengthening the Domestic and Family Violence Workforce Across NSW

Fully funded qualifications through the Sector Growth and Capability Uplift Program

Fully funded qualifications for the domestic and family violence workforce

Build your skills, gain a nationally recognised qualification and strengthen your practice.

Choose from:

- Certificate IV in Community Services (CHC42021)
- Diploma of Community Services (CHC52025)

About the program:

The Sector Growth and Capability Uplift Program supports the development of a skilled and sustainable domestic and family violence workforce across NSW through fully funded training opportunities.

Who this program is for:

- Current domestic and family violence workers seeking formal qualifications and recognition of existing skills
- People interested in starting a career in the sector
- Community services workers seeking to transition into or strengthen their practice in the domestic and family violence sector
- Organisations looking to strengthen workforce capability

Flexible study commitment:

- Approximately 8-12 hours per week over 12 months
- Self-paced learning with workshops and online sessions

In partnership with:

NSW Government:
Communities and Justice

What you'll receive:

- Fully funded nationally recognised training
- Recognition of existing skills and experience
- Flexible, self-paced learning supported by workshops
- Access to TAFE NSW support services
- Guidance from industry professionals
- Training tailored to your experience and career goals

Benefits for organisations:

- Upskill existing staff at no cost
- Support workforce retention and career development
- Increase capability in trauma-informed and evidence-based practice
- Strengthen service quality for clients and communities
- Build a workforce with sector recognised qualifications

Application process:

- Submit an Expression of Interest
- Participate in a short phone interview
- TAFE NSW will help you identify the most suitable qualification and training pathway

For enquiries, please email: dcjprojects@tafensw.edu.au

Expressions of Interest close
Friday 28 August 2026

Scan the QR code to apply.
Organisation nominations welcome.

