The Pyramid Model

for Early Childhood Professionals

Are you looking to create an environment where children feel understood, regulated, and supported in expressing their needs?

Would you like fresh, developmentally aligned strategies to nurture children's social and emotional growth in your early learning community?

About the Pyramid Model

The Pyramid Model for Promoting Social and Emotional Competence in Infants and Young Children offers early childhood educators and intervention professionals a supportive, evidence-informed framework for nurturing each child's social and emotional development.

The Pyramid Model is grounded in the understanding that every child can thrive when they are met with responsive, affirming, and developmentally supportive early learning environments.

Learning Outcomes

- Develop a detailed understanding of the Pyramid Model
- Explore practical tools and strategies you can apply in your own early learning environment
- Learn how to approach implementation in your setting
- Discover ideas and solutions to overcome common barriers, and the supports that can help
