

TERM 4 TIMETABLE

12 October – 11 DECEMBER 2026

Learning & Growth
for Mental Health

Our Values

* Collaboration * Integrity * Hope * Opportunity
* Inclusion * Respect * Enjoyment * Self-determination

South Eastern Sydney
Recovery & Wellbeing College

We acknowledge the traditional owners of the land on which we meet: the Gadigal people of the Eora nation in the Eastern Suburbs, the Biddegai people of the Eora nation in St George and the Gweagal people of the Dharawal nation in Sutherland. We pay respect to their elders past and present.

Vision

Every person has access to the resources which supports their personal recovery and wellbeing. The South Eastern Sydney Recovery & Wellbeing College enables this by facilitating co-produced, recovery oriented adult education and learning support.

Values

The South Eastern Sydney Recovery & Wellbeing College values demonstrate our commitment to high ethical standards that drive our priorities, behaviours, judgements and decisions.

Who can attend the Recovery & Wellbeing College?

The South Eastern Sydney Recovery & Wellbeing College is currently FREE of charge as funded by NSW Health and is open to people 16 years of age and over:

- ❖ With a lived experience of mental distress, or suicidal crisis and live in the South Eastern Sydney Local Health District (SESLHD) catchment area.
- ❖ Their families, carers and support people.
- ❖ Other residents of South Eastern Sydney Local Health District catchment area.
- ❖ Staff, students and volunteers of the South Eastern Sydney Local Health District.
- ❖ Staff of the Recovery & Wellbeing College partner organisations.

Contact the Recovery & Wellbeing College if you require clarification.

How to enrol?

For NEW or CURRENT students

Option 1: Complete online <https://www.seslhd.health.nsw.gov.au/recovery-wellbeing-college>

Option 2: Email SESLHD-RecoveryCollege@health.nsw.gov.au or phone 9113 2981 with your course preference/s

How many courses can I enrol in?

We generally recommend that you enrol in no more than 10 per term. This ensures your learning and growth with the College is sustainable and manageable, whilst supporting access to courses for other students. Most courses occur more than once a year and you're very welcome to enrol in a later term.

Staff of SESLHD must gain approval from your manager prior to enrolling in any of the courses.

Students who attend the Recovery and Wellbeing College agree to the Student Guidelines and Rights & Responsibilities set out by the College on the inside back cover.

Courses are in date order and the page number listed corresponds with the course descriptions in the course guide.

Frequently Asked Questions

What happens after I complete the enrolment form?

A team member will contact you and arrange a time to meet for an orientation and discuss your individual learning needs. Prior to commencing any courses, we will work through a Student Learning Plan with you which will build on your strengths to identify a set of learning goals for recovery.

Do I need to be referred by the mental health team?

No. You do not need to be referred. As a student you simply complete the enrolment form and a staff member will talk to you about what courses you want to attend.

How many other students will be at the courses?

The class sizes are kept small so you can have the best environment for learning. The sizes will vary depending on the nature of the course, with the average around 8-15 students.

Who will teach the courses?

All our courses are co-written and co-facilitated by two Recovery & Wellbeing Educators. One is a person with a lived experience of mental distress concerns. The other a health care worker, clinician or professional with suitable training and experience.

What do courses cost?

All courses are currently free of charge as long as you meet the eligibility criteria on page 1.

Do you supply food and refreshments?

Where possible, we provide tea, coffee and biscuits. Please bring along your own lunch and other snacks.

Can I bring a support person?

You are welcome to bring a support person to the course. This person also needs to complete the enrolment form and participate as a student in the same course.

What if I wish to provide compliments, feedback or make a complaint?

If you have any suggestions for new courses or any other ways we can improve please contact the Recovery & Wellbeing College on Ph. (02) 9113 2981 or email: seslhd-recoverycollege@health.nsw.gov.au.

If you have any concerns or compliments we also encourage you to talk to a Recovery & Wellbeing College team member by phoning 9113 2981. You can also discuss these issues with the Manager so they can work with you to find a solution.

If you don't feel comfortable discussing your concerns with the Recovery & Wellbeing College team members or Manager, you can contact the District Executive Unit with your concern Ph. (02) 9540 7756, Fax. (02) 9540 8757 or email: seslhd-mail@health.nsw.gov.au Postal address: District Executive Unit, Lock Bag 21, Taren Point NSW 2229.

If you do not get any satisfaction from the above steps or don't wish to contact the Health Service directly you can contact the Health Care Complaints Commission

Health Care Complaints Commission (HCCC)

Ph.1800 043 159. For more information visit www.hccc.nsw.gov.au

What happens if I can't attend the course?

We understand that there may be genuine reasons why on occasion people find it difficult to attend a course. The team is available to talk to you about any barriers to attending you might have and can suggest strategies to support you. We expect you to contact the College if you are unable to attend.
