

School-Link Talk Term 4:

Responding to school avoidance and re-engaging students in school

Schools are noticing increasing challenges in student attendance with growing numbers of students experiencing school avoidance. Often this occurs as a result of mental health or wellbeing issues being faced by students.

Explore how a whole-school approach to mental health and strategies for more targeted interventions can enable educators to identify possible risks early and support students and families.

19 November
2026
12.00PM - 1.30PM

Register now for Free!

Presented by:

Rebecca Huban
BeYou Consultant NSW/ACT
headspace Schools & Communities

Learning outcomes

- Recognise risk factors for school avoidance
- Implement strategies to reduce the risk of school avoidance and support student re-engagement
- Work with students, parents and families to support student attendance
- Maintain your wellbeing and clarity about your role

Click here to REGISTER or SCAN the QR code

